Please answer the following questions to assist the Planning Board in reviewing your application:

- What type(s) of classes are offered outside (yoga, Zumba, etc.)?
Aerobic, Tone & Sculpt, Cardio classes
- How many outdoor classes are proposed per day, and what days of the week?
4-5 (40 mins) spread out 2 morning → 3 afternoon or 1 morning 3 afternoon
- What are your proposed hours (i.e. when are earliest and latest classes each day)?
8am earliest last class 6pm (non peak hours) Gym & cages
- What's the maximum number of people that would attend an outdoor class?
20 people max 6 ft apart (temps checked) masks upon entry
- What measures are you using to protect class participants from vehicular traffic?
behind bag not near Rte 9 (cones block class)
- How many parking spaces are being used for the outdoor classes, and how are you accommodating parking for class participants and other activities at Double-Play Fitness.

Feel free to provide any additional information that's relevant to your request.

*6-8 parking spots in front of DP cage doors.
Baseball & softball outside when able, end summer/fall kids are on the fields.
when rain we cancel classes if needed to accommodate practices due to covid.*

6-8 parking spots are accommodated w/ parking coaches utilize makes up difference.

Radio is on level volume 4 goes up to (12) never exceed over 4. Speaker is pointed towards opposite direction.

All members come in w/ masks and coaches take temp checks. Then members find there designated x spots. Class starts ends 40 mins.

Cond has mentally took a toll on our members being outside gives them a sense of security and well being.

We as a gym, business owner & members have given 110% respect to our neighbors & community.

Double Play takes pride for 11 years maintaining a clean, well organized, gym and training facility.

We didnt choose COVID we have gone above & beyond the regulations needed.

Double Play gives back so much to the community, schools and other businesses in town.
